IOWMC # 1001

When I was a little kid 5 or 6, I was constantly fascinated with the contents of my fathers bedroom dresser drawer. Among the hankies and neckties, there could be found old notes to friends, coins, a few Cuban dollars from his honeymoon in Cuba, assorted pictures of my Mom (in younger years) and a high school yearbook. It seemed that every time I explored his drawer, I found some thing new.

Sifting through these treasures again one day, I uncovered a round piece of wood, with a purple picture of an eye and some lettering on it. Curious evaluation indentified it to be a commemorative celebration a centennial anniversary of either the Borough of Norristown or Conshohocken, Pennsylvania in the early 1950's. For some reason, I was completely intrigued with this nickel and vowed to learn more about it.

I still have that piece, but it is in some timecapsule (box in attic) in my house that has escaped my attention for now.

A little later, I think maybe in 1965 or 1966, there was an article in the now defunct Pliladelphia Bulletin about a wooden money club. I wrote to somebody, I can't remember who, back then and received my first Bunyan's Chips. Unfortunately, I was one member too late for milestone membership number 1000.

I remember all the fun I used to have as a kid scrounging up quarters and stamps for self return envelopes to get the latest nickels every month in Chips. I got a lot of wooden nickels since then, which I plan to give to my grandchildren, in about 100 years, for their fascination.

My collecting of things started with wooden money and expanded, at age 8 or 9, to collecting Superman and Batman comic books. I kept this collection intact and it is worth a pretty penny today. I regret not collecting Marvel.

Currently, I am collecting toys, specifically old blimps and ever since the demise of Challenger, space shuttles. I think I have acquired over 300 space shuttle toys by now, which are also in the attic as all collectors know "space runs out". (Continued next page)

I have a beautiful wife, Charlotte, and three wonderful boys, Zachary, Radnor and Remmington. My wife also collects things. She "collects" houses. We have a real estate investment business, "J R. Law and Associates", whereby we buy , sell, fix-up and rent out properties. We are hoping, that the suburban Philadelphia real estate market gets a little better in the 1990's so we can continue to eat.

Dear Editor,

Although I have belonged to IOWMC. for many years, I have never sent in an artical before. I hope that this item will help to fill a space and of interest to the clubs membership.

About four years ago, a letter appeared in a Coin publication, asking if a coin club in America would be interested in corresponding with a coin club in Leicester Encland. The only answer came from the Mismatic Coin Club in Camillus, New York. I was president of the club at the time and we have kept in touch, sent boxes of coin related items to them and recieved the same from them. Of course, wooden nickels were always included.

Last September, my brother and sister-in-law, Joe and Wilda Marshall and I made a trip to Leicester, England. The club had a party for us. I took a large supply of wooden nickels. They do not have them and were delighted them. Another item that they do not have are elongated coins.

We had a wonderful time. We visited, England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland. I am happy to say that the man who wrote that letter will be viaiting me in June of this year and my club is planning a great party for him.

(Keep doing a wonderful job as Editor.)

Sincerely, Reva M. Kline

Presidents Message

MY DAY AT THE ANTIQUE MALL

The other day in my travels, I passed the Amish community of Middlebury, IN. I noticed several antique shops and I said to myself this will be my day to pick up some good wooden nickels.

As I walked into the first shop I asked;"Do you have any wooden nickels?" "Yes" was the reply,"We have a couple." So she looked and looked but could not find them. "I'm sorry we must have sold them."

I walked into the next shop;"Do you have any wooden nickels?" "We used to have some, but not anymore."

The third shop....."Do you have any wooden nickels?" The reply "Are we supposed to?"

The fourth shop had one. The Wakarusa, Indiana Maple Surup Festival of 1982 for seventy five cents. I thought thatwas a good price and purchased.

As I left the little town of Middlebury the statement made by our Club Secretary, Robbin Quinn, came to mind: "There out there,so you just have to find them.

WHERE DOES OUR MEMBERS COME FROM ??

A question that has been on my mind for some time is;"where does the International Organization of Wooden Money Collector's members come from?"

We call our organization internatioinal and that is true as 17 are from Canada, and a few are or were in the arm service stationed in outher parts of the world, one that was in Brazil passed away. Research of our membership as of January 1st shows 371 and reveals some oddities.

No it isn't CA; FL; NY; or OH; that has the most members but PA; that has 49 members. All states except AK; AR; DE; ID; MS; NM; have at least one member. Those not having any members is really peculiar with thire heavy rural populations and tremedous historical backgrounds.

The top five are PA. (49), CA (29), OH. (25), NY. (23), WA. (15). Canada already mentioned as having (17). Puerto Rico has (2), Listing following are all the states with IOWMC members.

AL. (2), AK. (0), AZ. (5), AR. (0), CA. (29), CO. (8), CT. (4), DE. (0), FL. (6), GA. (3), HI. (2), ID. (0), IL. (16), IN. (8), IA. (7), KS. (4), KY (4), LA. (1), ME. (3), MD. (11), MA. (13), MI. TRISTAN L. STREET

IOWMC #J 2006

LOUISVILLE, KY.

The August-September 1992 issue of Bunyan's Chips had a portrait of Clever Trevor Street an eleven year old (at that time) that collects wooden money.

Well, another Street has surfaced. Triston L. Street (5 years old) brother of Trevor also collects wooden money and his oldest brother is nice enough to share his extra wooden money collection until Tristan "gets off the ground".

Tristan's mother states;"Trestan would be thrilled to receive any mail containing wooden nickels". (12409 Taylorsville Road, Louisville, KY. 40299) He asks his mother every day; is there any wooden nickels in the mail today?.

Tristan will collect anything and everything especially the toys that are associated with Hamburger Happy Meals.

I guess its never to young to start.

WOODEN NICKLES

Stasia and our 1st V.P. Al Bonesio both fell on ice at home on Jan. 25th injuring their same side. By 31 with pain went to hospital Stasia had broken collar bone & sprains, Al had collor bone, shoulder, neck & nerve damage. Wish them a speedy recovery. I'm sure many others also took falls. Yes even your Editor but one fortunate, no injury except skinned up hand.

Most of my collection is built on mail order dealings and a SASE (Stamped Self Addressed Envelope) is a common way to make polite inquiries of your fellow collectors.

After one recent comedy of errors I will be changing my method of addressing SASE. Previously I have just grabbed an envelope with my return address in the upper left corner, wrote out my address in the usual address place, stamped it, folded it up and sent it on its way. Never again will I do it that way. Now I write to whom I am sending the SASE in the return address area and follow the rest of the steps.

Why? Recently I went to the Post Office and found a postage due notice in my box. One of the items was an SASE that the Post Office received in early December. (Why it took six weeks to get a notice into my box is still under investigation.) I opened the envelope and found four woods from the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo; a note signed Bill, telling me that more woods are available; and a three page list of rectangular woods. No where in the entire contents, is there a name or address for Bill. Going to the Post Mark which is Colorado Springs, Co. and reviewing the IOWMC roster reveals no Bill from that area.

Who is Bill? Where is he? If I had placed his name and address in the return address area of my SASE I would know. A word to the wise.

Library gets bequest from patron

Many of the Cecil County Public Library's resources are living tributes to generous patrons — past and present.

Endowments, grants and gifts presented to libraries are means of assuring that technology, collections and programs will continue to expand and serve the community, a library spokeswoman said.

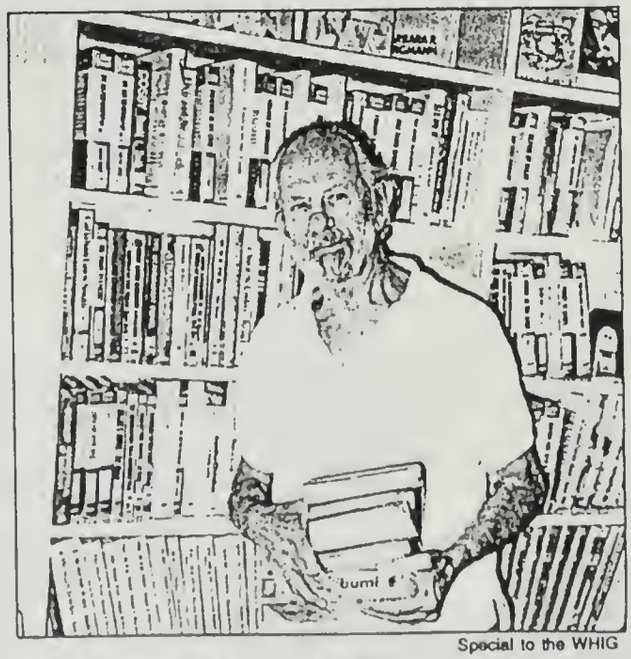
Recently, the library was the recipient of a bequest from the estate of Stanley A. Brown, a long-time library supporter.

The library spokeswoman said the library benefited from Brown's patronage, friendship and advocacy for many years. "The staff knew that when Mr. Brown walked in, animated conversation was not far behind!"

"Mr. Brown, being a bit of a vagabond and a collector of wooden tokens, traveled around the United States, often to meetings with other collectors," librarian Ruth Ann Johnson said. "For several years he donated wooden tokens to be handed out to children during the library's summer reading programs. To celebrate the opening of the library headquarters building, Mr. Brown provided commemorative wooden tokens and remarked at the dedication that he was proud to live to see the day that Cecil County had a new library."

Because of vision problems, Brown was a reader of books in large print and was persistent in his requests for the expansion of the largeprint collection. This collection continues to be supplemented by funds donated by community organizations and individuals such as Brown. His gift will allow for significant largeprint collection development, Johnson said.

As these books are distributed to the homebound by the library's "Book Buddies" and borrowed from all library branches by the armfuls, the librarians will continue to salute the memory and the generosity of a true "friend of the library," Johnson said.



Special to the WHIG

Stanley A. Brown, a long-time Cecil County Library supporter, was well-known for his patronage, friendship and "animated conversation."

OUR HOBBY NEEDS: We are lacking OFFICIAL issues that builds knowledge of our great country. Any of our members noting any Centennials, Bicentenary or any type of a celebration should contact the government body or chairperson in order to suggest & show some of your collection. Explain that they let them be known of throughout our country as well as some others. It also will give them a keepsake and remembrance of it and local publicity. Even if not obtained in time for the event they still can serve the purpose. If you wish to sponsor a issue consent must be obtained to make it a Official Issue. It can not include a business or ones name. If no design a Indian or buffalo or other stock designs can be used. Some pay for the woods and keep some to cover the cost and the balance given to the event to use as they wish locally. TRY IT-its a great experience. Editor

SAUGATUCK, MICHIGAN
IOWMC # 1935

I was born in Chicago, IL. July 2, 1921. Some of my fond memories are of the old street cars, the creaking horse drawn milk wagon on a cold morning and the frozen cream on top of the bottles. Then there's the big "Century of Progress", the Chicago's World's Fair of 1933. My grandma was a avid Cubs fan and went almost every "Ladies"s Day". One day when she took me I caught a foul ball & had it autographed by Lon Warneke,"Gabby" Hartnett and others.

As teen-agers my brother "Chuck" and served a stint in the C.C.C. 's rip-rapping irrigation canals in Idaho.

Later , Chuck served as a paratrooper during WW-ll, while I was a B-17 pilot in the European theater. My younger brother, Bob served in the Korean conflict.

My wife, Fran and I were married May 5, 1951 in Blue Island, IL. We had four children (all grown) and two granddaughters.

We moved to Michigan in 1962 where we owned and operated a beach on the beautiful, spring-fed Goshorn Lake on the edge of sand dunes.

Have been a "collector" all my life (my wife has a different term - Pack Rat). Among my collections are pins, (some dating back as far as 1918) including Gene Autrey, Babe Ruth, Shirley Temple, Captain Midnight de-coder badges, etc.- Bells, 1/12 scale miniatures and Coins.

Just recently (last 2 yrs.) started collecting Wooden Nickels and elongated pennies.

Have been a "craft" person most of my life - still make lamps and clocks of all types. Made a 100 pc. wooden block construction set in a box with sliding cover and a four room doll house plus furniture for my granddaughters.

Write the monthly newsletter for our local coin club and still manage to bowl twice a week along with normal chores connected with owning our home. Presently live at 3596 65th St. Saugatuck, MI 49453

 PRESIDENTS MESSAGE ***

The Detroit, Michigan American Numismatic Association, July 27/31, 1994 will be upon us before we know it.

Now is the time to think about your donations for the annual auction and raffle that is held at our annual meeting.

Send all donations to Denver Howard, 6440 Fairfield #110, Fort Wayne, IN. 46807.

The auction and raffle is your clubs way of producing revenue to keep our dues at $5.00 per year even with the increase in postage.

Last year several members sent in funds that paid the winning members dues for a year. The first drawing this year will be for a original piece of the only legal wooden money that had a value of $30.00 in the 1976 guide book of wooden money. It is serial numbered #2529 a issue of June 1932 - 25¢ a copy of the amount of issues and the envelope mailed in included.

This will be my first time to chair the clubs Raffle and Auction event that was done for quite a few years by Wayne and Virginia Dennis. I sure hope that I can do as good of a job as they have done.

Our members help is always needed to send material to our Editor for Bunyan's Chips, and remember that a effort is being made by Norm Boughton to publish a booklet of all the Portraits over the years, so if you want to have yours in it, hurry up and get a portrait to our editor.

Remember our club's Historian Toni Cichy, 74 Thelma Irene Dr., N Kingstown, RI. 02852-5621 always likes anything you may see relating to Wood's items or pictures to put in our history book.

Denver Howard - President

F R E E W O O D !

Now that I have everyones attention with that headline I can explain a new program IOWMC has started. The headline tells the truth, we have free wood to be given out. It is for junior members of the IOWMC. Here is how we plan to work it. I have a supply of wood that has been donated to the club for distribution to our youth to encourage them to join and be active in our hobby.

As we all know the future of the hobby depends on geting new members especially younger members. The club will send a package of wood to any junior member who requests it. He/she will be expected to write back and pay the postage but nothing for the woods. Packages will be sent from time to time probably each four to six weeks to any junior who returns the postage. This will get new wood to them on a regular basis and hopefully get some questions asked and get them started corresponding with a few other members. I will put a note in each package and suggest ways of organizing and storing their collections and try to get them to write and swap with others. I enjoy writing away for a wood that is advertized and adding it to my collection but I have found one of the best parts of the hobby is the notes that come with the woods. At present we don't have a long list of juniors so lets all work on that. I think that most of us can find a child, grandchild or even a youth in the local coin club who could be encouraged to collect wood. The dues in IOWMC is only $5.00 a year and only $2.00 if to the same address as another member. This should not be out of reach for most kids. When you use the offer of the free wood program as an incentive I hope we can get our junior roster up to a respectable number. Anyone with a few extra woods that wants to help may send them to me. Be sure to include a note so I know they are for the "junior members" and not for the "mail bid".

SEND IN YOUR (1994) DUES

Currently we have a total of 275 members who have paid their 1994 dues. This number reflects the fact that there are a total of 100 unpaid dues to date 3/13/94. Let's check our records to see if we have a 1994 membership card on hand, if not, then send out your dues renewal now to avoid the extra cost for reminder post cards and the extra postage that goes with it. I would like to thank the members who have sent in extra postage and donations to me. Last year these little donations saved our club about $30.00 in postage. I also would like to thank our fellow collectors for the Christmas woods, round and flats they sent with their dues renewal, next year I will have one to trade with one and all. 1993 was a good year for our club, we were able to clean up many errors in our record books, largely due to the extra effort by our editor and Norm Boughton.

This year we may see 400 members in our club. Last week I issued card number R-2040 and we have done well in deed to see as many members as we have. May 1994 be a better year for us all, and may our club grow due to its current membership.

Respectfully, Club Secretary
Robbin A. Quinn

I.O.W.M.C. MAIL BID - HOW IT WORKS

I have received several letters reciently asking how the clubs mail bid works and how to enter bids. Most mail bids are the same to enter. The IOWMC bid works like this. Look over the listing you receive and pick out the woods that you would like to have in your collection. You will notice the listing has a description of the wood in the lot and a lot number. Some listings may also contain a price and the letters m/b for minimum bid. A minimum bid is set by the person consigning the woods and is the lowest he is willing to sell the wood for. If you want it you must bid at least that much. Next list the lot numbers of the woods you want and a bid for each lot you want. On the closing date of the bid I sort the bids out by lot number and the highest bid on each lot wins that lot. I mail all the lots to each winner and include a bill for the total plus instructions to add the amount of postage I had to put on the package. Send no money with your bids.

WHAT IS A LOT? A lot is usually a single wood but may be a set of 2, 3 or more like the same wood with an indian and a buffalo reverse. The lot may contain several different colors of the same wood. Some lots have contained several hundred pieces. My description will tell you how many woods are in the lot.

HOW MUCH TO BID? This depends on how much you want the lot and how much you can afford to spend. After the sale is over I send back your bid sheet and list the amount that all the woods you bid on sold for. This way you will see what the highest bid was on certain types of wood and you can adjust your bidding acordingly. If it is a wood that you want only a little bit, bid a little. If it was a lot that no one else wanted very much than you may win it.

If you get it then good you get a bargain. If it is the one piece that you need to finish a 20 piece set bid higher than you think it may be worth to someone else.

DESCRIPTIONS. I try to describe the lots as well as space and my knowledge allows. Sometimes my description may not be clear enough as a variety of a wood exists. Feel free to ask questions about the lot. Tell me you only want to bid if the indian is faceing left or if he is standing or something like that.

If you have any more questions feel free to write and ask.

Interesting Facts About BALSA WOOD

WHERE DOES BALSA WOOD COME FROM? Balsa trees grow naturally in the humid rain forests of Central and South America. Its natural range extends south from Guatemala, through Central America, to the north and west coast of South America as far as Bolivia. However, the small country of Ecquador, on the western coast of South America, is the primary source of model aircraft grade balsa in the world. Balsa needs a warm climate with plenty of rainfall and good drainage. For that reason, the best stands of balsa usually appear on the high ground between tropical rivers. Ecquador has the ideal geography and climate for growing balsa trees. The scientific name for balsa wood is ochroma lagopus. The word balsa itself is Spanish meaning raft, in reference to its excellent floatation qualities. In Ecquador it is known as Boya, meaning buoy.

HOW DOES BALSA WOOD GROW? There is no such thing as entire forests of balsa trees. They grow singly or in very small, widely scattered groups in the jungle. For hundreds of years, balsa was actually considered a weed tree. They reproduce by growing hundreds of long seed pods, which eventually open up and, with the help of the wind, scatter thousands of new seeds over a large area of the jungle. Each seed is airborne on its own small wisp of down, similar to the way dandelion seeds spread. The seeds eventually fall to the ground and are covered by the litter of the jungle. There they lay and accumulate until one day there is an opening in the jungle canopy large enough for the sun's rays to strike the jungle floor and start the seeds growing. Wherever there was an opening, made either by a farmer or by another tree dying, balsa will spring up as thick as grass. A farmer is often hard put to keep his food plot clear of balsa. As the new balsa trees grow, the strongest will become predominate and the weaker trees will die. By the time they are mature, there may be only one or two balsa trees to an acre of jungle.

HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE A BALSA TREE TO GROW? Balsa trees grow very rapidly (like all pesky weeds). Six months after germination, the tree is about 1-1/2 inches in diameter and 10 - 12 feet tall! In 6 to 10 years the tree is ready for cutting, having reached a height of 60 to 90 feet tall and a diameter of 12 to 45 inches. If left to continue growing, the new wood being grown on the outside layers becomes very hard and the tree begins to rot in the center. Unharvested, a balsa tree may grow to a diameter of 6 feet or more, but very little usable lumber can be obtained from a tree of this size. The balsa leaf is similar in shape to a grape leaf, only a lot bigger. When the tree is young, these leaves measure as much as four feet across. They become progressively smaller as the tree grows older, until they are about 8 - 10 inches across. Balsa is one of the few trees in the jungle which has a simple leaf shape. This fact alone makes the balsa tree stand out in the jungle.

THE PERFECT NURSE! Nature evidently designed the balsa tree to be a "nurse tree" which would protect the slower-growing species of trees from the scorching jungle sun during their critical early years. For instance, in an area of the jungle that has been ravaged by a tropical storm or other natural disaster, the balsa trees will quickly sprout and begin to shoot up to impressive heights in a very short time. Their fast growth, and the extra large leaves they have in their early years, provide shade to the young seedlings of the slower-growing forest giants. By the time the seedlings are established enough to take care of themselves, the balsa tree is beginning to die. Undoubtably, the balsa tree's rapid growth, last spreading crown of first very large and gradually smaller leaves, and it's relatively short life span were intended to make it the "perfect nurse" in the jungle ecosystem.

HOW ARE BALSA TREES HARVESTED? While nature intended the balsa tree to be a short lived nursemaid, mankind eventually discovered that it was an extremely useful resource. The real start of the balsa business was during World War I, when the allies were in need of a plentiful substitute for cork. The only drawback to using balsa was, and still is, the back breaking work that is necessary to get it out of the jungle. Because of the way the individual balsa trees are scattered throughout the jungles, it has never been possible to use mass production logging procedures and equipment. The best way to log balsa trees is to go back to the methods of Paul Bunyan — chop them down with an axe, haul them to the nearest river by ox team, tie them together into rafts, and then float the rafts of balsa logs down the river to the saw mill. The logging team usually consists of two native Ecquadonans, each armed with a broad Spanish axe, a machete, and a long pole sharpened like a chisel on one end for removing the bark from the downed trees. Because of the hilly terrain, an ox team may only be able to drag two logs to the river per day. At the saw mill the raw balsa is first rough cut into large boards, then carefully kiln dried, and finally packed into bales for shipment to the U.S. via ocean freighter. Final cutting and finishing of our model aircraft balsa is done right here at the SIG factory. As a result of the balsa tree's fast growth cycle, both the quality and lightness of the lumber obtained from a balsa tree can vary enormously depending upon the tree's age at the time of cutting.

WHY IS BALSA WOOD SO LIGHT? The secret to balsa wood's lightness can only be seen with a microscope. The cells are big and very thin walled, so that the ratio of solid matter to open space is as small as possible. Most woods have gobs of heavy, plastic-like cement, called lignin, holding the cells together. In balsa, lignin is at a minimum. Only about 40% of the volume of a piece of balsa is solid substance. To give a balsa tree the strength it needs to stand in the jungle, nature pumps each balsa cell full of water until they become rigid - like a car tire full of air. Green balsa wood typically contains five times as much water by weight as it has actual wood substance, compared to most hardwoods which contain very little water in relation to wood substance. Green balsa wood must therefore be carefully kiln dried to remove most of the water before it can be sold. Kiln drying is a tedious two week process that carefully removes the excess water until the moisture content is only 6%. Kiln drying also kills any bacteria, fungi, and insects that may have been in the raw balsa wood.

HOW LIGHT IS KILN DRIED BALSA WOOD? Finished balsa wood, like you find in model airplane kits, varies widely in weight. Balsa is occasionally found weighing as little as 4 lbs. per cu. ft. On the other hand, you can also find balsa which will weigh 24 lbs. or more per cu. ft. However, the general run of commercial balsa for model airplanes will weigh between 6 pounds to 18 lbs. per cu. ft. Eight to twelve pound balsa is considered medium or average weight, and is the most plentiful. Six pound or less is considered "contest grade", which is very rare and sometimes even impossible to obtain.

IS BALSA THE LIGHTEST WOOD IN THE WORLD? No! Most people are surprised to hear that botanically, balsa wood is only about the third or fourth lightest wood in the world. However, all the woods which are lighter than balsa are terribly weak and unsuitable for any practical use. The very lightest varieties don't really resemble wood at all, as we commonly think of it, but are more like a tree-like vegetable that grows in rings, similar in texture to an onion. It is not until balsa is reached that there is any sign of real strength combined with lightness. In fact, balsa wood is often considered the strongest wood for its weight in the world. Pound for pound it is stronger in some respects than pine, hickory, or even oak.

HOW DO I STORE MY WOODS?

How do I store my woods is a question that no doubt has many answers Usually a collector picks a system that is best suited to them. The size of your collection may dictate the system you use. Some of use have seen Ted Wolverton's collection and how he exhibits it. Pictures in the clubs history books show various storage systems, yet some report that they have let their collections over-run a system as our editor Walter Scott reports and tries to encorage new members to pick a category as its almost impossible to collect all as his main liking is personal and 1st state issues and designs. I will discuss small collections like my own; around 1200 woods.

Your system should have a table of contents, cross reference, etc., so you can locate a particular wood very quickly. I have a 3X5 card index of any set or single wood. On the back of the card, I have listed the place I purchased it from or how it was obtained. A table of contents in each note books using pocketed plastic pages designed to hold various size of woods is also a good way. All of your books should contain an alphabetic cross reference. Books can be numbered or labeled with state or category of what woods it contains. Loose leaf books with 2,3 and 4 inch rings can be obtained reasonable from Office Depot and local banks and businesses often have a lot they will give ones if they are asked.

Most of my collection is stored in small drawer cabinets that can be obtained from K-mart, True Value Hardware, etc. The types of cabinets I own are of the following:

TYPE:	DEMSIONS:	DRAWER SIZE:
9 DRAWER	9 X 5½	5¼.X 23/4 X 1½
15 DRAWER	9 X 5½ X 7	5½ X 23/4 X 1¼
27 DRAWER	12 X 15 X 13	23 - 5¼ X 2 X 1¼
		4 - 5¼ X 4½ X 2
30 DRAWER	11½ X 5 X 8	4½ X 2 X 1

The 27 drawer cabinet allows storing of large flats and dollar size woo (4 drawers in each).

The 9 drawer houses my Hall-Of-Fame Baseball flats made by John Lawrence

I have a small cigar box marked: "not counted or classified". About once a month I take woods from this box, make a 3X5 card and place some-where in the system.

In storing sets of two or three woods you can use the nine pocket plastic pages purchased at any baseball card store, but more than three require to go back to the 20 pocket pages. The nine pocket pages are very good for flat woods; however you want to purchase plastic (baseball size) insert to place your wood in before placing into the pocket. The plastic might pull off the printing.

Some of the holes in the plastic sheets are difficult to punch out but by using a hand hole punch with a hole reservoir (so little pieces of the plastic won't get all over the floor) can be utilized.

A large picture frame can also house some woods, but you loose the feature of being able to see both sides. Placing woods between two pieces of plastic remains a problem on how you keep these two pieces together without sealing off completely.

Using a small brown envelop 2½X4¼ can store one or two woods, 2"size and you can write all sorts of information on the envelop. Store these in a metal 3X5 card file using index cards.

Then there is the simple way. One box with all those woods, I don't know if I have any duplicates, and I can't find anything.

I shouldn't even write this article as I'm way behind on my indexing.

Tenino's Wooden Money

Wooden money is a circulating medium in Tenino, Washington, as a part of the plan of its Chamber of Commerce, to thaw the frozen assets held in an insolvent bank. The Chamber of Commerce is accepting assignments up to 25 per cent of the depositor's account in the bank, that being the expected amount of the first dividend. In return scrip is issued for the amount of the assignment, in denominations of $10, $5, $1, 50c., and 25c. Most of the business people have agreed to accept the scrip at face value so it serves as a medium of exchange, doing duty every time it turns over, until the time comes for redemption. In order to protect the scrip from counterfeiting, the signatures of the three trustees are necessary, and the larger denominations are on lithographed forms, while the smaller currency is on two ply slicewood of Sitka spruce. This unique Washington timber product is sliced to a thinness of 1-80 of an inch and is made strong and pliable by a sheet of paper pasted between the two surfaces. The scrip is all printed at the office of the Thurston County Independent, Tenino's newspaper.

The issue from December to June includes:

December, 1931—Paper: 105 Ten Dollars, 305 Five Dollars, 605 One Dollar, 300 Twenty-five Cents. Wood: 40 Twenty-five Cents.

February, 1932—Wood: 100 One Dollar, 375 Fifty Cents, 2600 Twenty-five Cents.

March, 1932—Wood: 3,000 Twenty-five Cents, 155 One Dollar. Wood watermarked. 100 Fifty Cents, 1,000 Twenty-five Cents.

April, 1932, 5,000 Twenty-five Cents, 600 Fifty Cents, 300 One Dollar.

May, 1932—250 One Dollar, 250 Fifty, 1,500 Twenty-five Cents.

June, 1932—3,250 Twenty-five Cents.

Tenino is located in the center of southern Thurston County, an area containing thousands of acres of timber, valuable coal lands, sandstone quarries, dairying and general farming. Over three thousand acres of strawberries and cane berries have also aided in making the county one of the fastest growing agricultural districts in the Northwest. It is in within easy access of the Pacific Ocean, Puget Sound, the Columbia River, and Mt. Rainier National Park. It is on the Pacific Highway and has three transcontinental railroads. Its climate is mild with little snow or hot weather.

The Tenino Chamber of Commerce offers its plan to combat the Depression. It is satisfied that with confidence it can disprove even the old gag, "Don't take any wooden money."

 FORT WHIPPLE ***

The wooden dollar that announced the Prescott Coin Club's 20th annual coin show also commemorates the "130th" anniversary of the founding of Fort Whipple in its present location. On October 23, 1863, Brigadier General James H. Carleton, ordered a military force to be sent to the area to protect the miners in the new gold fields from the Indians. In December, the first Fort Whipple was was located at Del Rio Springs near Chino Valley, North of Prescott. However, that site was to far from the gold mining activity on Lynx Creek. Therefore, in May, 1864, Major Edward B. Willis selected a different location, 21 miles away, and Fort Whipple was established two miles northeast of Prescott on the east bank of Granite Creek.

With the end of the Civil War and the discovery of gold in Arizona, more and more people were moving into the area, both miners and other settlers. Unfortunately, if the presence of the resident Native Americans "interfered" with the white man's plans for the land, then the Indians had to go. Therefore in 1871, Major General George Cook was assigned to "subdue the hostiles." At Fort Whipple, he organized three "flying columns" of Calvary and Indian scouts to operate against the Yavapai and Apache Indians. From September 1872 to April 1873 Crook's various commands successfully fought 22 battles against Indians. Most of the Indians had surrendered by that time, but the soldiers still bore the brunt of routine patrols. Indian chases and police duty on the reservations. However, it would be incorrect to characterize the decade of 1873-1883 as one of continual Indian warfare. By the time Geronimo and the Chiracahua Apaches had been removed to Florida in 1886, the most serious reason for maintaining a large garrison at Prescott ceased to exist in addition, the lack of a railroad had prevented Fort Whipple from remaining the most important Army post in the territory.

Originally, Fort Whipple consisted of a rectangular log stockade on gently sloping ground about 20 feet above the creek. An artist's conception of how it might have appeared in 1864 is depicted on the reverse of the wooden dollar. It remained like this for 8 years, one of the very few stockaded military posts ever built in the Southwest. However, in 1872, the original building and stockade of the fort were demolished to make way for more permanent structures, which were erected on higher ground about 70 feet above Granite Creek. There was no major construction during the next 30 years, and by 1895 the buildings were badly deteriorated.

By the autumn of 1897, it was decided to inactivate the post. However, when war started in Cuba in 1898, the closing officer became a mustering officer and enlisted 200 men for the Spanish American War. The recruits who drilled at Fort Whipple from April 29 to May 4, 1898, formed a squadron of the 1st U,S. Volunteer Cavalry - Teddy Roosevelt's Rough Riders.

The Fort remained without a garrison until 1902, at which time it was reactivated. All the old wooden structures were razed; and in their places were built handsome stone barracks, two-story officers' quarters, and smaller but equally well-made homes for noncommissioned officers. Most of those buildings erected from 1905 to 1908 stand today, still in use. For another decade the fort was home for a battalion of infantry, but at last the fort was declared obsolete and its troops withdrawn in 1912, the same year that Arizona became a state.

However, the post was not abandoned. In May, 1918, the Army converted the post to a general hospital for the care of respiratory patients. In 1959, the tuberculosis specialty was de-emphasized, and Fort Whipple became a general medical and surgical hospital of the Veterans Administration.

Only 264 acres remain of the original 1,730 acre military reservation. Ironically, the Yavapai Indian Tribe has acquired the rest as an Indian reservation.

The Prescott, AZ. coin club issue can be obtained for 25¢ each plus a #10 SASE. 52¢ if 3 or 4 woods ordered. Write: Sandra Wolf, P O BOX 233, Dewey, AZ 86327.

DOUBLOON CLUB HONORS CONVENTION CENTER

The Mobile Mardi Gras Doubloon Collector's Club featured Mobile's new convention center on its wooden nickel this year.

Each year the Club chooses an organization to honor with the striking of a coin, according to John Powell, club president.

"This year we chose to honor the Mobile Convention Center. While the convention center was dedicated last summer, this will be the first official Mardi Gras for the center and we wanted to commemorate that in our own way" said Powell.

The issue (color purple) can be obtained for 35¢ plus a SASE from Gene Nelson, P O BOX 9969, Mobile, AL 36691-9969.

Other club issues have honored, (1993) the Mobile Naval Station; 100th anniv. of groups (1983) Excelsior Band; (1984) Comic Cowboys; (1988) Mobile Fire Department. Other anniv. (1991) Joe Cain Day Procession 26th; (1989) Mystic Stripers 50th; and (1986) the Clubs own 10th anniversary.

SAWDUST
BY NORM BOUGHTON

Most of us try to give something back to our hobby and our community. Recently learned of a way to do both at once.

The National Arbor Day Foundation tries to make people aware of the need to continue to plant trees and they have school programs to plant trees and shrubs. Unlike many of the do-good organizations they dont seem to spend a lot on preaching, leaving more time for doing. With your dues you get the option of recieving some seedlings to plant yourself or you can leave them with the organization and they will plant them. They also send a catalog offering trees and shrubs at reasonable prices.

Arbor Day varies as the time to plant trees is different in the different states. (Upstate New York may never thaw out enough to plant trees again. The closest city to our summer cottage had to have the temperature rise 75 degrees to reach freezing the other day. Might be normal for some places in US but not here.) When Arbor Day occurs in your state, why not make up a wood to share with fellow collectors and area school children.

If you desire to support the NATIONAL ARBOR DAY FOUNDATION the address is 100 Arbor Ave, Nebraska City NE 68410.

Woods can show up at many places as Editors daughter on a trip to a bowling Tournament in TX added the $\frac{1}{4}$"thick wood post card and the ALAMO issue. Many other places were visited but no woods just ticket used from Graceland, Graceland Car Museum, and Corpus Cristi Greyhound Dog race track. As requested she also called Gary Litrell, to let him know he was still remembered by us woodies. This proceeded his generous gift of his fathers woods to the club's.

Popular big band composer Al Trace, 92

ASSOCIATED PRESS

SUN CITY WEST, Ariz.—Al Trace, a big band songwriter and band leader who popularized the nonsense ditty "Mairzy Doats" in 1943, has died after suffering a stroke. He was 92.

Mr. Trace died Tuesday night at Sun West Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in this Phoenix-area retirement community, said Nancy Brandt, a family friend. He never recovered from a stroke he suffered in February, she said.

In the 1930s and 1940s, Mr. Trace led a band called Shuffle Rhythm that was heard nationwide on radio, and he composed songs that later were recorded by Frank Sinatra, the Andrews Sisters and others.

In 1943, Mr. Trace had a hit singing a number he didn't write, "Mairzy Doats," a string of near-nonsense commentary on livestock eating habits that begins: "Mairzy doats and dozie doats and little lambsy divey."

Mr. Trace's version was on the Lucky Strike Hit Parade for 20 weeks and brought him to Hollywood's attention. He appeared in several of Charlie Starrett's "Durango Kid" movies in the 1940s, providing music and appearing in some as a sheriff.

Al Trace in 1948

He wrote and co-wrote several songs popular in the 1940s and 1950s, including "You Call Everybody Darling," "If I knew You Were Coming I'd've Baked a Cake," and "Brush Those Tears from Your Eyes." etc.

A version of his "You Call Everybody Darling" was released by country singer K.T. Oslin in 1990.

Mr. Trace moved to Arizona in the 1970s and continued to write songs until he became ill. He wrote under the pseudonym Clem Watts, Brandt said.

He is survived by his wife, Barbara.

Our hobbies members wives or husbands are not often covered in Portraits. Al Trace, was not a member but Barbara is HLM # 10. Among the many items recieved from members is a pile o promational records sent to me that learned me how one musician and singer can make a hit while another doesn't.
Barb, attended a number of our meetings over the years and hopes to attend Detroit's ANA.

IOWMC # 1535

CASTLE ROCK COLORADO

Leslie Salley like so many wooden money collectors collected coins in the 60's. It got so expensive and one day he saw an add for some "Wooden Nickles", very reasonable sent for them and was then hooked. He then joined wooden money clubs and at one time had about 10,000 wooden nickels.

A wooden nickel is about 1½ inches in diameter. If (10,000) are layed edge-to-edge that would measure 15,000 inches which is about one quarter of a mile.

Leslie was born inminnesota but moved to Castle Rock Colorado in 1979. Not too good a change in weather? Castle Rock is between Denver and Pueblo off interstate 25. The good point about Colorado is he lives near his Daughter and Son-In-Law and Grandchildren.

Lois, his wife of 51 plus years, still works as a print shop operator and Leslie who retired in 1984 at age 62 works part time for his Son-In-Law.

Leslie still has other interest of fishing and Golf besides his wooden money collecting. Another very interesting IOWMC club member

* PRESIDENTS MESSAGE ****

On the eve of our July Detroit meeting I thought it was time for me to do a real interesting historical article about wooden money. A trip to the Fort Wayne Library and a visit with ayoung lady behind a computer, I was told the library has no books about wooden money. I wasn't surpprised as their isn't too much written about this subject.

The point I'm trying to make is I encourage all members to write articles about wooden money and submit them to our Editor making his job as Bunyan's Chips editor a little easyer. I don't know what this club would do without our newsletter or our editor. Also the cooperation of Norm Boughton whom is keeping our roster updated and supplying the mailing labels and sending some materal for Chips. Our Secretary Robbin Quinn also is kept busy supplying the information he gets to the editor and Norm.

Let's make the rest of 1994 our most successful year in written material about our hobbies. There must be plenty of information we just have to find it and collect it.

Recieved a letter the other day from William J. Carr of Sebastian. FL. He stated he had read Norm Boughton's "Collect Wood Galore in 94" and had liked it very much. He suggested "Keep Wood Alive In 95" which I liked very much. This kind of activity by club members is very good.

Bill Carr also donated 3 - $5.00 membership's for the raffle and a extra $10.00 for helping out on postage expenses.

William Carr,
Is one of our best members by far;
Let's all take an interest in our club,
Let's not act like a sub.

Don't forget to send in your raffle tickets. Wish you luck on winning a nice prize.

I have had three phone conversations-Calif. with a writer for Boys Life magazine, some of us oldies use to get this publication when kids or in the Scouting Program. I was asked about collecting something other than coins for boys and that they had found my name in a directory as a collector of wooden nickels.

I gave the writer the names of some of the Jr's in our wooden nickel clubs to contact about young boys collecting wood, I hope I did not upset anyone. Also recommended contacting Ray Dillard about Jr's that collect the Elongated coins.

I am on my own now and will always have some problem with a stright out 180 degree lift of my left arm to up over my head. The wife will also have a life problem with her arm worst then mine, and hopes the doctor will release her about May 16th. from any more therapy visits. Looks like she will never have full use of the left arm... 1994's winter will be remembered.

We thank the many that have sent cards and notes, and wish those members whom are not in the best of health a fast recovery.

I.O.W.M.C. MAIL BID - HOW IT WORKS

I have received several letters reciently asking how the clubs mail bid works and how to enter bids. Most mail bids are the same to enter. The IOWMC bid works like this. Look over the listing you receive and pick out the woods that you would like to have in your collection. You will notice the listing has a description of the wood in the lot and a lot number. Some listings may also contain a price and the letters m/b for minimum bid. A minimum bid is set by the person consigning the woods and is the lowest he is willing to sell the wood for. If you want it you must bid at least that much. Next list the lot numbers of the woods you want and a bid for each lot you want. On the closing date of the bid I sort the bids out by lot number and the highest bid on each lot wins that lot. I mail all the lots to each winner and include a bill for the total plus instructions to add the amount of postage I had to put on the package. Send no money with your bids.

WHAT IS A LOT? A lot is usually a single wood but may be a set of 2, 3 or more like the same wood with an indian and a buffalo reverse. The lot may contain several different colors of the same wood. Some lots have contained several hundred pieces. My description will tell you how many woods are in the lot.

HOW MUCH TO BID? This depends on how much you want the lot and how much you can afford to spend. After the sale is over I send back your bid sheet and list the amount that all the woods you bid on sold for. This way you will see what the highest bid was on certain types of wood and you can adjust your bidding acordingly. If it is a wood that you want only a little bit, bid a little. If it was a lot that no one else wanted very much than you may win it.

If you get it then good you get a bargain. If it is the one piece that you need to finish a 20 piece set bid higher than you think it may be worth to someone else.

DESCRIPTIONS. I try to describe the lots as well as space and my knowledge allows. Sometimes my description may not be clear enough as a variety of a wood exists. Feel free to ask questions about the lot. Tell me you only want to bid if the indian is faceing left or if he is standing or something like that.

IF YOU HAVE ANY MORE QUESTIONS FELL FREE TO WRITE AND ASK.

J.B.H. ELMORE

IOWMC # 2004

MORRISTOWN, TENNESSEE

Mr. J. B. H. Elmore attended U.S. Navy Academy, Coin Dealer, University of Tennessee football fan, Democratic National Committee and FA&M Lodge #767 Morristown, TN. how is that for openers?

Mr. Elmore has been collecting for over 20 years. He believes that "woods" are a part of numismatics as well as any other used tokens. J.B.H. has a coin shop in Morristown, Tennessee named C J & S Collectibles at 133 N. Henry street, 37814. He also has a card and comic book store called the Sports Scene.

He feels that there are so many different woods that anyone can find something to their liking. In the area of Eastern TN. not many people collect or even know about "woods". Over the past few months he has traded with many people on woods and now his store is dealing with twenty customers that are buying woods of all types. He has been dealing in this type of merchandise for not quite six months. He has taken woods to many shows and they went quite well.

Mr. Elmore's features of his collection is a 1955 Morristown wooden nickel. Lets wish him luck two complete the set of 10 pieces and to find the set of 9 first State issues of Chattanooga TN. 1938

WOODEN NICKLES

Loxops Virens

By Irving Kam

Artwork for the latest addition to the long running and very popular "Hawaiian Endangered Wildlife" series is now complete and currently in production. The obverse of the wooden token numbered fourteen features the "Amakihi (loxops virens)" a honeycreeper endemic to the Hawaiian Islands with four subspecies on Maui, Moloka'i, Lana'i, O'ahu, Kaua'i. and the Big Island of Hawai'i. The yellowish green birds inhabit the many native forested areas with higher elevations, particularly those of the o'hia & mamane.

The reverse, acknowledges the Hawaii State Numismatic Association as the sponsoring organization of the 13th Annual Coin Show. The date & location are also noted as well as a depiction of the Hapu'u. Largest of the Hawaiian tree ferns, they require a moist environment thereby residing in the shadowy reaches of the wet wood lands.

* PRESIDENTS MESSAGE ****

" WE ARE AT THE CROSSROADS "

I belong to an organization called DESA (Destroyer Escort Sailors Assoc.) This organization is made up of sailors that served on U S Navel vessels Destroyer Escorts. The navy no longer has DE's in its fleet. This is a dying organization as about every day a member dies with the organization having no chance to increase its membership.

IOWMC is not dying, however soon will be our yearly meeting and my first year as President will be closing out, I see things that I believe should be done in the next ten years or we could become a dying organization.

We need to increase our membership. Young members like Tristan and Trever Street 5 and 12 and about 16 other junior's, along with others in their 20's and 30's is great yet many more are needed to take our club into the future.

How do we sign up new members in our hobby that seems to entice a lot of seniors? We got to MAKE and KEEP collecting wooden money and wood tokens INTERESTING. How do we keep this hobby interesting?

Our older members must be more active in encouraging our junior members by sending them a few of our extra woods and notes. Write stories about wood if you don't they will be lost in time. These stories will help take the load off our Editor. We also need members to take a more active interest in our news letter, members that are willing to replace Scotty when the time comes. I produce a newsletter for the' American Water Works Association' and I can testify that after many years this duty becomes a drag.

BUNYAN,s Chips is our main contact with membership; so lets start these articles headed towards Elkton, MD.

IOWMC is not dying it may not need fixing but will some day as the mileage increases, fixing may be needed.

LET'S GIVE IT A LITTLE PREVENTATIVE MAINTENANCE NOW.

Denver C. Howard - President

Update on the Tenino Bank building (Note page #26 of April Chips) (Sept. error)

After no longer used as a bank it has been the Chamber of Commerce Office, Real Estate Firm, Antique Fine Furniture, Florest Shop, Arts and Crafts, & whatever.

The building is in fine shape, complete with the teller cage, counter and a big safe.

The septic system, is no longer working and the field drain is under the street and can not be repaired, so water can't be used and the proprietors have to wash elsewhere.

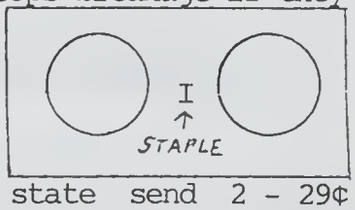
TIPS ON MAILING WOOD == I like to accumulate woods through the ads in Bunyan's Chips, but they should not secure the wooden nickels with scotch tape. When you separate them from the backing it pulls some of the ink off and sometimes leaves a sticky film. Placing them between 2 - 3x5 file cards or light cardboard as cereal boxes etc.. Seal the edges with tape (not the woods) such works well, I also found stapling the cards, to keep woods apart that and sealing the edge keeps them from shifting or over lapping that stops breakage if they get run through a canceling or sorting machine by the postal service.



Another tip involves finding the postage that is necessary. I had our local post-office clerk put a Quarter on the scale and it weighed 2/10 of an ounce. Five quarters weigh exactly 1oz so anything less then the weight of 5 quarters requires 29¢.

The 3rd tip regards saving postage. Some ads state send 2 - 29¢ stamps. This is not necessary. The 1st oz. requires 29¢, but there after it requires 23¢. increments, thus - 52¢ - 75¢ -98¢. Postage is already too high with out wasting it. If the postal service would cut out the waste instead of wanting to raise rates, postage could be lowered. (these tips were sent in by: R-1935 Bill Manifold, Bill has also gotten members).

Mr. George Camp, #C-55 reports, An old time collector of specialties, had told him the following: Discs were cut, much like slicing off a broom handle which then went through a process much like paper manufacturing whereby the wood is softened to a pulp like material. Following this they were rinsed with clear water, then alcohol. They were then put through a steam driven coining press with dies engraved as coin dies. The major difference was that the planchets were steamed in scalding water to keep them soft and pliable. They were next put in to drying ovens, weighted with heavy timber to prevent the wood from warping. After drying they were hand dipped in various dyes for a coloring.

On these items "in relief' it is not now known who the manufacturer was nor why? or who? issued these "wooden nickels" at the Century of Progress in 1933 and 1934.

Could it also be, that these items were made from finely ground "wood" and molded ? See the'Token and Medal Society Journal Vol 11 No. 1, page 8 under the heading "Notes On Some Materials Little Used For Medals and Tokens" by Edgar Heyl.

C-55 also advises that of the several thousand wooden nickels he has had, the only othernoticed 'in relief' were issued by: a liquor firm in at least 5¢ and 19¢ pieces

He is not sure but believes it was "Old Drum."

'CP' numbers, except the suffix letters, are credited to Mr. Nathan N. Eglit for his listing of this materal in the 'Token and Medal Society' in VOL. 5 No. 4, page 106 in the August and October issues. VOL. 7 No. 5 page 139 of the November issue.

At this time, in collectors hands, the following quantity are known to exhist. CP6a 3, CP6b 7, CP6c 2, CP48 1, CP49 7, CP184 4, CP202a 5, CP202b 5, CP202c 5, and CP202d 2. Unlisted Whirling Glob - 2.

IOWMC # 2029

As a grateful member of IOWMC would like to state I was born in Bellevue, Ohio May 26, 1915. That makes me old and young at the same time.

At a young age Pearls father had a accident making times rough, and her brother wanted a business course, and she was able to attend Bowling Green State University at half price to become a teacher due to a two in a family schooling program. Taking up dictation and using stereotype led to a civil service test and ended up in Washington, D.C. IRS site.

It was there I met my husband to be. After requesting a transfer to Ohio and was sent to the IRS in Toledo only to request a transfer back to Washington and Bob. We got married in Tiffin, OH. with my family attending on May 30, 1939 thinking it would always be a Holiday for us. Bob was drafted and served 48 months in both theaters in the Army Medics, when honorably discharged joined me in Cleveland where I was working and being a homebody transferred back to Bellevue. Bob transferred to Fremont till it closed then to Sandusky. When he retired we both worked awhile in Norwalk in secretarial/payroll to cover for a ill girl, that lead up to us getting a home in Bellevue, my home town.

Something woke me up early one morning, just before Halloween and I was told to go Clowning and make people HAPPY. What a road! First Clown around here, First to be a lady clown - I've got hit in the stomach, walked on, stepped on, etc. First time wore slacks, old jacket, garden gloves and a pillowcase with holes cut in it. Went up town to a dry goods store. No one in front so, went to back to cashier's cage and was mistaken for a robber until I pulled out candy for them before they got to a gun. I ventured on after Mrs Halloween to become Mrs Puritan and believe 1st Mrs Santa Claus. Portrayed Mrs Valentine, Mrs St. Pat, Mrs Easter, Betsey Ross and Raggedy Ann. Then I found out a true Clown didn't wear a mask.

I heard of "Clowns of America" and became a member learning the Do's and Don'ts. Finally settled on Clown names Mrs. Heart, Mrs. Cottontail and at Christmas Mrs. Santa Claus. Told ones Mrs. Santa Claus and Pearl Buoker were sisters. Mrs. Santa Claus and a friend have written 79 chapters "At Home With Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus" and hope someday to get it published not for wealth and gain but interesting fact and fiction.

Have been in parades, festivals, visit home bound, nursing homes, hospitals, etc. Also write to young and old alike either as Pearl or in character. Bob and I also put together word puzzles of various types.. It is FUN.

A IOWMC member Bill Manifold crossed my path and will always be grateful to be a member in a wood collectors club. After being in the business world and the past 24 years making ones happy as a Clown.

I have plans for woods to ad to members collectables and my clowing around.

Thanks for making our life far more exciting.

August 20th 1964 --- A meeting was held at the A,N.A. Convention in the Sheraton Cleveland Hotel in Cleveland, Ohio on August 20, 1964. The following is a report on the above:

Mr. Ted Rochette, Editor of Numismatic News, suggested that we have a contest to name our organization. This was approved by members and a contest will be run in several Numismatic publications. The deadline for the contest entries will be November first. Following this contest a contest will be held to get an insignia for the organization. The winner of each contest will be awarded a plaque made in the shape of a large Wooden Nickel. All entries are to be mailed to Wendell Morningstar.

It was decided in order to get the organization on a working basis that we elect temporary officers for the balance of the year. The officers elected were W. C. Morningstar, Pres., Mrs. Wally Gilmore, Vice Pres., and Mrs. T. E. Morningstar secretary/treasurer.

The subject of dues were brought up and after much discussion it was voted to charge $2.00 dues per year to run January 1st thru December 31st. This will go into effect January 1st 1965. Mrs. Gilmore made a motion that any one paying their dues for 1965 between Aug. 20th and Dec. 31st, would be considered a Charter Member. This was seconded by: Mr. Brooks. the motion passed. Judy Sabel, Joseph Lessner and Howard Eisenburg were named as the committee to prepare the constitution and by-laws for the organization.

Mr. Brooks made a motion that any time two or more members get together at a show they can conduct an unofficial-official meeting. All business to be forwarded to the headquarters to be printed in the bulletin and approved by the membership.

The official meeting of the organization to be held each year at the A,N.A.Convention. This motion was seconded by: Mr. Davis and passed. The A.N.A. convention will be held in Huston, Texas in 1965. Mr. Eisenberg made a motion for adjournment, seconded by Mrs. Casey. Motion carried.

Respectfully Submitted - Mrs. T.E. Morningstar - Secretary

In 1984 we celebrated our 20th anniversary in Detroit with a enjoyable event. Sally Kirka was President and a special event arranged by Mark McDaniel was held at the Beef Carver restaurant with 53 members and guest attending. Alice Penzes furnishes 20th anniv. balloons & door prizes were drawn. Wooden tokens were used for dinner checks, later returned as a collectible item. A 20th. anniversary program was issued.

Whenever refereeing back to Chips one finds many memories as noted nine members have passed away that were in attendance at the event and will be missed by us,

We lose some members not listed as Chips is received by others, or until their dues runs out. Chips have been returned marked deceased on envelope, by ones closing estates family or friends. A effort is made to let them know woods do have a value and if one of family is not retaining ones collection, that it may be advertised in "Chips" or sent in to be set up in our clubs mail bid.

Norm -- Received your letter dated 6/30/94 regarding the Merrick Ave. wood which you desired to be checked out. I have the following information; The wood was issued to Merrick, NY. which is on Long Island in Nassau County, Hempstead Township. 10,000 pieces of the wood were issued in 1967 to commemorate 100 years of Merrick Avenue. Merrick avenue begins just south of Merrick and runs NNW through Merrick, N. Merrick, past Eisenhower Memorial Park and Roosevelt Raceway, ending at Old County Road. It is absolutely straight from beginning to end and is about 3 miles in lignite. It is my opinion, because of the large number of pieces that were issued and the lack of any business advertising on the wood, that it is probably an official issue.

Best regards, Fred Gates

This note is a example of how members endeavor to obtain information on wood issues that have been located for ones collection rather then just let it remain a maderick wood.

INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION OF WOODEN MONEY COLLECTORS

VOL. XXX | AUG./ SEPT. 1994 | ISSUE # 8

THE LEDGER, Thursday, July 7, 1994—13

JACK RATZLAFF enjoys his hobby of collecting wooden money. While he is relaxing, he has placed over 20,000 pieces of the money into five categories in albums which are catalogued alphabetically by town and state or according to the wood.

Ratzlaff: Man of many interests

Collector owns over 20,000 wooden coins

by Pyllis Schroeder

BUHLER--New enthusiasm for his hobby and a good way to relax and unwind has put Jack Ratzlaff's collection of wooden money well over the 20,000 mark. Ratzlaff began the collection about 25 years ago when he was working at Buhler Mills in the late 60's. At the time, he was collecting coins, and came across a wooden nickel. He turned to coworker Jack Ward (now deceased) and asked if the wooden nickel was worth anything, Ward replied they were mainly for advertising.

Ratzlaff acquired about 500 wooden nickels and do to circumstances sort of forgot his hobby. About four years ago, his interest in the hobby was renewed and his collection has grown.

Besides a time of relaxation, the hobby is time consuming. Ratzlaff feels the hobby is a good one to get into because it's not that expensive; one must like to read advertising though. To Jack, it's real rewarding and he's helped a friend get started collecting. The friend's collection is over 500 and he's joined two clubs.

He has wooden coins from every state in the United States and some foreign countries. He has divided his wooden nickels into four categories: Indianheads, buffalo nickels, tuits, and plain mavericks, (advertising on both sides). The mavericks represent half of his collection. He has cataloged the nickels into cities and states and placed them in alphabetical order by cities into their states album. It's interesting for Ratzlaff to read the advertising. He sees where they're from, sees how many he can get from different states, and has heard of some cities he didn't even know existed.

He has at least 600 wooden nickels from Kansas and at least 1200 to 1500 from Texas, with the most from San Antonio. So far, the Texas coins are not in albums and he has 68 albums just for the United States. He still has thousands of wooden coins to sort.

When Ratzlaff began the hobby, he had no idea it would get so big. Supplies to catalog the nickels costs more than the actual nickels. Most supplies are purchased from coin dealers, they include the albums, pages, and 2" x 2" sleeves which eventually are stapled on four sides. "You sometimes get blisters from stapling," said Jack. The wooden dollars are not organized yet.

Collectors of wooden money have a terminology that is accepted by most collectors of the money or "woods." The official wood is issued for an official function or event such as a centennial, fair, rodeo, etc. by a group representing the town, state, county, borough, etc. The semi-official is the same as the official except it is issued by a private party or company. The coin club is a wood issued by a coin club for a coin show, anniversary, meeting time, etc.

The Christmas or holiday wood is issued at the holiday time in lieu of a card or as a tuck-in with a card. The private wood is issued by a person, church, or company for a special event such as a wedding, bar mitzvah or birth, or to promote a product or service. It contains the city, state, date and event.

Mavericks do not show the town or state, and it's orgin is not known. If the place a wood is from cannot be determined, it is classified as a "maverick." Merchant tokens "Good Fors" are issued by a merchant or company to promote business. The words "good for" or similar are printed on it along with the name and generally the address.

Wood nickels are approximately one and one-half inches in diameter while wood dollars are two inches in diameter.

Wooden coin categories are unlimited. Each collector usually chooses a few categories as Jack has. For example, and to name a few, one may select state seals, presidents, states, eating establishments, etc.

Ratzlaff belongs to four clubs in conjunction with wooden money, located in New York, Texas, Pennyslvania and Canada. (He just recently joined the ones in Canada and Pennyslvania). From the clubs, he receives publications such as the Timber Lines and Bunyon's Chips. These tell what other collectors are doing, gives convention dates and places, and lists items for sale or trade. Some collectors donate duplicates to new members or teenagers starting to collect.

They also acknowledge members' anniversaries and birthdays, etc. Another advantage is the chance to mail bid with sometimes as many as 200 items to bid from. (Mail bids are like auctions). Ratzlaff enjoys making bids on bid sales. Wooden coins can be purchased by thousands at a time from some companies.

Ratzlaff prefers to buy most of his wooden money from two brokers in San Antonio, one in New York and one in Pennsylvania. He would like to start purchasing from someone in California and focus on another area. (He has probably 1,000 woods from California now). Some organization members make their own woods, some making them for a profit. Jack said it would be appreciated if those who make their wood, would put their city and state on it. Most of his shopping is done during summer months and organizing is done during winter months. Each year, a convention (sort of like a reunion) is held in a different place. This years' was in Detroit, Jack hasn't attended one yet, but someday hopes to.

Ratzlaff enjoys going to auctions, flea markets, garage sales and craft shows. "It's amazing what you can find in someones' junk," he said.

Jack's wife, Sandi, has her own hobby of craft work. The couple sometimes exhibits at craft shows, which also gives them an opportunity to shop for their own interests. Sandi also enjoys attending flea markets, etc. and supports Jack by shopping with him.

Ratzlaff's interests are not limited to wooden money. He also collects key chains, weather thermometers, foot long rulers, pocket screwdrivers, corkscrews, cigar boxes, wrought iron cannons, four way screwdrivers (a keychain which is also a screwdriver), pot metal, a few belt buckles and anything to do with wrought iron. Ratzlaff feels each collection is unique in its own way. He has possibly 1,000 keychains. He began collecting tabs at first. The circle keychains are his favorite. He may have several keychains with the same advertising but different colors or he may have several with the same advertising but by different businesses. Jack considers these to be sets and more valuable than a single key chain.

His cannons are all different. The first one was obtained about 10 years ago around Tacoma, Wash. The cannons are one of his favorite collections.

The cigar box collection started with wooden boxes which have dovetailed corners. He has since added the cardboard boxes to the collection.

The corkscrews are ones vendors used to carry in their pockets, a unique quality of them is the advertising on the carrying case.

The pocket screwdriver collection contains about 100 pieces.

Ratzlaff is an employee of the Dillons Warehouse. He has been a member of the Buhler City Council for 12 or 13 years and still serves in that capacity. He also works some evenings supervising sports activities for the Hutchinson Recreation Commission. In addition to his activities, he enjoys antiques. Jack's children are Michelle Ratzlaff, who lives in Buhler and works for Hay and Forage in Hesston and Susie Gehring, who also lives in Buhler with her husband, Dan, and daughter, Catelin. Dan is employed at the USD 313 bus barn and serves as the Buhler Fire Chief.

STRANGE THINGS ABIUT THE RAFFLE! - Denver Howard

The winning tickets were drawn after the annual meeting in Detroit Saturday July 30, 94 Some phenomenal occurrences surfaced during this drawing. With the assistance of Floyd Thomas pulled the winning tickets.

I don't know what the odds would be with approximately 950 tickets in the box; but Bill Carr won a year's membership which was donated by William (Bill) Carr. Joe Snook, who donated two memberships, won one but not the one he donated.

Del Cushing of Seattle, Washington won two prizes: 50 personal woods donated by John Lawrence and a one year membership.

IOWMC"s officers were quite lucky as Ted Wolverton won a membership and Robbin Quinn won 95 misc. flat woods donated by Peter Sloan. Another Sloan won a membership but it was not Peter. It was Arthur Sloan.

Most fitting was our oldest member in Canada won the first drawing, winning the piece of Tenino WA. original wood the issues that helped form our hobby. Walter is looking for his 100 th. Birthday.

Elizabeth Takes Wooden Nickels

by Richard 'Scoop' Plummer • Somerset Gazette

MADISON—You have all heard the expression, "Don't take any wooden nickels," usually followed by "They're not worth anything anyway."

You better not try and convince Elizabeth Hall Stevens that accepting wooden money is not a smart idea. Don't even think of it! Because, for eleven years, she has been collecting these unusual items, approximately 4,500 of them. And they represent quite a sum of money.

"My husband, Elby, had a coin collection and I wanted something to do when I went to the shows with him. That is the reason I began collecting wooden money."

In her home near Lakewood, Elizabeth has her wooden coin collection systematically arranged in scrapbook-like albums. They go by states, by historical events and by a few other methods. Betty can reach out and select the correct classification in just a few seconds.

We saw the traditional rounds as well as the flat ones that look a little like our bills. On one side is an Indian or a Buffalo head and, on the other side, descriptive words relating to most any important date or event one might call to mind. A centennial would be a good example.

How did money made of wood originate? Wooden script, in what way did it all begin? It is necessary to understand this in order to comprehend the whole thing. On December 5, 1931, the Citizens Bank of Tenino, Washington failed and the shortage of money in Tenino became acute. Don Major, publisher of the Independent newspaper, contacted the Chamber of Commerce and proposed issuing script to meet the emergency.

A committee contacted officials of the defunct bank and they agreed to back the script up to 25 percent of each depositor's account. This gave the script legal status and the idea was adopted. Major designed the script and soon it was rolling off the press. Assignments of claim were printed, each depositor being issued an Assignment of Claim that he could exchange for script at the Chamber of Commerce which was chosen as the clearing house.

Mr. Major had been printing novelty Christmas and business cards on rectangular pieces of Slicewood furnished by Albert Balch of Seattle. Slicewood is made by laminating a sheet of bond paper between two slices of spruce wood. Balch prevailed on Major to print the script on Slicewood instead of paper, alleging that the wooden money would gain worldwide publicity.

Was he ever correct? You better believe it. The wooden money allowed the people to continue business among themselves as usual and avoided disaster. This wooden money was used as lawful currency and debts, pay salaries and make purchases. In this way Don Major became the father of wooden money in America.

The story of Tenino wooden money spread throughout the world, collectors flooding the Chamber of Commerce with thousands of requests. Blaine, Washington, followed with the same procedure when its bank failed. The first wooden nickels in the world appeared in Blaine.

Mrs. Stevens told the Somerset Gazette that several enterprising manufacturers of novelties decided to make wooden nickels which are used today to raise funds by towns and cities, Chambers of Commerce, coin clubs, banks and private individuals. "Many ingenious sizes, shapes and materials are used. All fall in the category of wooden money and are accepted as such."

Betty explained that wooden money went from its original purpose in the banks as a form of security to the current means of publicity advertising. "This money just became collector's items and remain very much so in our present time."

Madison Woman Collects Wooden Money

Pictured is Elizabeth Hall Stevens of Lakewood with a portion of her collection of wooden money, some from every state in the U.S.

"One of the leading producers of this novel money is a Mr. Berkie in San Antonio, Texas. His Elbee Nickel Co. purchases birch and maple wood from a mill in Kingfield, Maine.

The many clubs to which Elizabeth belongs are a part of the American Numistatic Association. "These organizations are friendly groups, very congenial. Every so often they hold conventions."

The Madison woman is looking for wooden money from Maine which she told us is very scarce.

Wooden money activity centers in the United States, Canada, Hawaii, Alaska and Puerto Rico.

"This type of collecting is an education in itself because of the history concerning each piece of money. It is not old but a lot of it depicts times in the past, fascinating eras. It is just lots of fun."

WATERMELON DAY --- ROCKY FORD, COLORADO

In 1871 A. Russell and George W. Swink came from Illinois and built a general store on the south bank of Arkansas River at a point northwest of the present site of Rocky Ford, CO. The bed of the river has in most places much quicksand, so the river bed, which came to be known as Rocky Ford, was a much-used crossing. Indians had crossed here for many years, and Kit Carson, pioneer scout, is said to have given it the name "Rocky Ford".

Built on the south side of the river, the store was a long room, constructed of split cottonwood logs set in the ground on and, covered with poles and dirt. A small room was added on the rear and served as a shop.

As the community increased in number, this store became a center for business, social and religious life. Here settlers took refuge in time of Indian "scare".

Because lumber was so scarce and unavailable, the Swink home and Russell hotel were built of adobe (sun-dried brick).

The store thrived, so Swink set about starting a cattle business, which was the real reason he came west. He also begun farming in a small way, using a unique irrigation system. He had his boys bring water from the river and fill barrels, which he set in convenient places. When it was time to irrigate, he removed the bungs (a stopper of a cast) from the barrels and guided the water over his land in small ditches.

Things were well under way, when a government agent appeared and brought news that the settlers had no right to this land, which was not part of the St. Vrain Grant, as they had believed. The area was open to settlement only under government claims -- homestead, timber or preemption.

This was a blow to these pioneers, but they began looking into thé matter of goverment claims. This was just at the time that the Santa Fe railroad was extending its line to Pueblo, Colorado. Naturally, the settlers wanted to be near the railroad.

So the village of Rocky Ford, which contained three homes, one hotel, the store and a blacksmith shop, was moved three miles south in 1876. The first permanent home was built by Mr. Swink for his family. In the same year Rocky Ford was put on the map by the placing of a post office there to serve the area.

The first Watermelon Day was held in 1878 when Mr. Swink shared his bountiful crop with trainmen and all passengers on the Santa Fe train. The melons were cut on a box car door. The observance was held in this way for several years before being moved to a grove north of town, where the old Liberty school did stand. Later it was moved to the present site of the fairgrounds.

Mrs. Mattie Swink Lamon, born June 1, 1874, was the first white child born in old Rocky Ford. She and her younger sister, Mrs. Belle Daring, are the only living children of George W. Swink, founder of Rocky Ford.

Mrs. Daring has attended all but one of the 94 Watermelon Days originated by her father. In 1910, she accompanied her father, who was ill, to the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, MN, and was not present for Watermelon Day.

She almost single-handed saved the continuity of Watermelon Day on two occasions. Because of financial difficulties, the Arkansaw Valley Fair Association decieded not to have a fair or Watermelon Day in 1929. With only 48 hours in which to work, Mrs. Daring spearheaded a movement that made the 52nd Watermelon Day a reality in 1929.

Again in 1942, there almost wasn't a Watermelon Day because of the war. Again Mrs. Daring wasn't about to let the tradition lapse, so the 65th Watermelon Day was held and enjoyed by acrowd that filled the grandstand and bleachers.

1972 seen the celebration of the 95th Watermelon Day... the oldest continuous celebration in Colorado.

Like many famous events, Rocky Ford's Watermelon Day has been commemorated by the issua of a wooden nickel... in the shape of a watermelon.

The thought, of issuing a wooden nickel to commemorate the 72nd Watermelon Day festival, came to Herman L. Boraker early in 1948. (Herman donated the 1st typewriter to our club and was given HM #435 in our club). The newly formed Arkansas Valley Coin Club seemed like a good prospect to sponsor the issuance of the wooden nickel. So he offered the thought to the club at the June 14, 1949 meeting.

A letter from the Mengel Company of Louisville, KY. dated May 23, 1949, was read to the club. Prices were quoted for 8" x 10" cloth-backed veneer, paper-backed or veneer not backed with anything. The price for the first two types of veneer was 15¢ per square foot for extra pieces, rejects, etc.

The club voted for Herman to go ahead with the idea. On July 1, 1949 he ordered enough plain maple, cloth-backed veneer to make 3,000 pieces $2\frac{1}{2}$" x $4\frac{1}{2}$". On July 11th he received 250 square feet of veneer at a cost of $37.50. Then borrowed cut of a watermelon from the Burrell Seed Co. and had the Rocky Ford Tribune order a steel die, which was used to cut out the nickels the shape of a watermelon. The print shop charged $10.50 for use of one of their presses. Herman did all of the press work without charge... as he had worked for the print shop prior to going into the military service in 1942.

The nickels were finished and made available to club members at the August 14th meeting of the club. The members bought over 400, the Fair Board purchased 300 to put in their visitor packets that they gave to out-of-town guest, Rocky Ford merchants bought 600 to give out to their customers and other sales accounted for over 300 more. The Arkansas Valley Coin Club's treasury book shows that $12.00 was received from a coin dealer in Georgia on April 12, 1950. Its believed this was for the remainder of the wooden nickels.

After 22 years Herman could not recall the total number of nickels printed...but believed it was close to 3,000 that was originally planned.

The issuance of the Watermelon wooden nickel was not a big financial success for the clu , but at least Watermelon Day was commemorated on wood.

No-one knows where all of the nickels are, but collectors do know one is seldom offered for sale.

(Note: This item was used in February 1972 in Bunyan's Chips. Herman L. Boraker also issued a Cantaloupe wooden nickels which Wayne Dennis wrote about in the May 1971 issue).

 PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE ***

The consensus of the Board of Directors feel that Charter Member LCDR Michael W. Crawford should retain his orginal club number. In Michael's own word "I was an active member for a few years and then the Viet Nam war became a big ıing in my world and I let my membership expire. A few years later I sent in my membership fees and was given a new number".

One Board member stated;"I have no idea what the logic was in always assign ing a new number when a former member rejoins. I can't see what difference it makes. Also I am inclined to agree with Mr. Crawford that once a Charter member always a charter member regardless of whether membership was continuous".

Another Board member wrote;"It is my feeling that in the best interest and good relationship and promotion of wooden money give Michael his old number.

One Board member stated;" that the By-Laws state clearly that he should be asked to pay back dues to receive his original number. If rules are bent for him we will be obligated to do so for others down the line".

Another stated;" I vote to re-instate this gentlemen's charter membership".

Another Board member said;" I think he should have his old number".

Many of us were in the service and our thoughts weren't about retaining our membership in clubs which we belonged. Many Viet Nam veteran's thoughts were only survival. I have no argument with any of the above statements by members of our Board of Directors.

I'm requesting that his old number be restored to him and at our 1995 yearly meeting the members can vote on what I did as being proper and make it official one way or the other at that time.

Some towns in Indiana and Ohio are celebrating their Bi-Centennials this year as Mad Anthony Wayne built several forts in 1794. I can't believe that Fort Wayne, Indiana Bi-Centennial Committee did not issue a wooden nickel. Defiance, Ohio did issue a very fine wooden nickel.

I received a very fine letter from Pearl L. Buoker (Bellevue, Ohio) and he was pleased that Bunyan's Chips did a profile on her. She is one terrific ıdy and the format of her letters are something like I've never seen before.

COME ON FOLKS, let's get acquainted. Let's get information about you, your hobby, and your other interest to Scotty our editor or me so we can do a nice profile about you. ACTIVITY IN OUR CLUB IS SOMETHING ALL MEMBERS SHOULD BE DEDICATED TO.

SAWDUST -- By: Norm Boughton

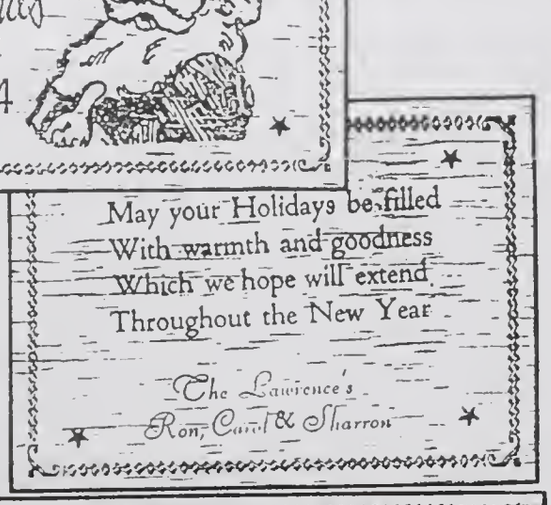
March 26th, 1995. Mark that date now! Our 30th Anniversary Show and Fun Time, will be held in Fostoria, Ohio.

Why Fostoria? The coin club invited us and most of us collect because of the work of John Rodgers Co. of Fostoria whose copyright appears on hundreds of different Flat Woods and probably is responsible for the phrase "Don't take any Wooden Nickels". Hopefully we will learn more about the company and maybe find some idea of how many woods were made for some of the celebrations.

Nothing is finalized yet but tentative plans are for a Saturday evening dinner and auction, and a Sunday exhibition, speaker about Rodgers Company and a raffle. Space will be available for exhibits, sales and trading of woods and just conversation.

From the membership we need your committment to attend, your ideas of what you would like to have happen. PLEASE send a postcard to Norm Boughton, P O BOX 93262, Rochester, NY 14692 if you plan to attend. If you can help by taking on part of the load such as compiling a program, selling advertising for the program, donating items for the raffle and/or bringing an exhibit of ur collection please let me know that, too. PLEASE DON"T SEND ANY RAFFLE ITEMS YET.

With over half of our membership residing within a four hour drive of Fostoria, I look forward to seeing the largest turn-out in the history of IOWMC. Only you can make it happen!



May your Holidays be filled
With warmth and goodness
Which we hope will extend
Throughout the New Year

WOODEN NICKLES FROM ALL OVER

In Aug/Sept Chips I overlooked to note the newspapers items were published in. The La Vern Ratzlaff item was from the "Buhler Kansas - Ledger" Vol. # 108 # 27, July 7, 1994 a consolidation of newspapers serving Buhler, Inman, and Moundridge since 1887 providing a record of community history into century two.

Elizabeth Stevens item was from "The Somerset Gazette" serving Route 201 corridor from the Canadian Border to the County seat and beyond Vol. # 6 # 32, August 19, 1994. Elizabeth obtained permission for its use in Chips.

Both items were very good and a big help in the promotion of our hobby. Nearly all your local newspapers endeavor to find stories of interest to the area readers. Check out yours, if your club is mentioned and its address published it would help build membership.

TRANSPORTATION OF HAWAII by Kazuma Oyama

Once upon a time, even before the population sprawl of the city and County of Honolulu, we had a multiple public transportation system that covered most of Oahu. The Honolulu Rapid Transit (HRT) covered the city from Kalihi to Kaimuki and up Liliha and Nuuanu, to Waikiki. Oahu Railway & Land Co. (O.R.&L. Co.) provided service from Honolulu Kahuku via Kaena Point which included Aiea, Pearl City, Waipahu, Ewa, Nanakuli, Waianae, Waialua, and Haleiwa; and also service to Wahiawa and Schofield Barracks via Waipahu and Waikele / Waikakalaua gulches. The "Pearl Harbor Divers Association" provided service between Pearl Harbor "Navy Base" and the Honolulu YMCA. Rosecrans provided jitney service between Fort Shafter and Waikiki. I believe there was a "Windward Bus" that provided service from the Kaneohe area to Honolulu and Wahiawa Transport furnished bus transportation between Wahiawa, Schofield and Honolulu.

Reminders of some of these transportation companies are available in the form of tokens as listed in the book " Hawaiian Money Standard Catalog" Metcalf & Russell. Listed are six varieties of Honolulu Rapid Transit including the hula girl token which was superseded by tickets before it was put into use. Pearl Harbor Drivers Association also had six varieties. Rosecrans has only one token listed. The other companies evidently used tickets or were on the cash basis.

The islands of Hawaii, Maui, and Kauai also had public transportation as evidenced by tokens. There is a Nawiliwili Transportation Co. Token of Kauai and Maui had Kahului Railroad Co. tokens. The "big Island"of Hawaii had several from services in the Hilo area. Hawaii Bus Assoc., Kuwada Bus Ser. Transilux Ltd., Red Checker Buses and Waiakea Mill Co. There is also a Union Bus Line listed.

The island of Hawaii had two Railways, The Hawaii Consolidated Railway (Hilo Railroad) operated between 1899 and 1946. One route was from Hilo up the Hamakua coast to Paauilo, the other from Hilo toward Kilauea Volcano to Glenwood, and toward the coast to Pahoa, and Opihikau. Damage to the tracks and the high, long, bridges caused by the great tsunami (tidal wave) of April 1,1946 hastened the demise of the Hawaii Consolidated Railways. The Hawaii Railway (Hawaiian Railroad) operated between 1880 and 1945 in Kohala. The route was from the port at Mahukona in west Kohala to the north Kohala sugar cane companies Hawi Mill, Union Mill, Halawa Plantation, Kohala Plantation and Niulii Plantation (Hart's Mill) King Kalakaua rode this train from Mahukona to Kapaau to dedicate the original statue of King Kamehamaha 1. The statue in Honolulu is a duplicate of this original which was thought lost when the ship bringing it to Honolulu burned at Port Stanley, Falkland Islands. The ship was enroute from Italy to Honolulu via Cape Horn, S. America.

SAWDUST - by Norm Boughton

Wow! What a beautiful plaque I got for the Literary Award. If I can now entice a whole bunch of members to join the club so I can get the Membership award I will have a grand slam. Don't know how many of our members have the grand slam but it can't be too many. A sincere thank you to all the membership who made the first four awards possible. (I count the Grand Slam of awards as Literary, Membership, Outstanding Service, Past President and Life Membership).

By the way, I write these ramblings every now and then for several reasons but the main one is to help you enjoy your hobby. How about some feedback? Do you enjoy? Want me to shut up? (Those that know me know you will have a hard time getting me to do that.) A postcard Good or Bad would be appreciated.

The show, sale and fun time in Fostoria, OH is progressing nicely. Our Secretary, Robbin Quinn has agreed to be in charge of the raffle, auction and favors for Saturday night dinner. He will be asking for your donations soon.

Some people have raised an objection to having this affair because they want to continue meetings at the ANA, which will not be affected by this even Our By-Laws state our annual meeting is held in conjunction with the ANA conv. and will remain as such. Many attending the ANA are involved with other numismatic collectables as well as wood. Some times it is a long costly way to go if one just collects wood. Therefore it will help our hobby having the area get together giving more a opportunity to meet more collectors, get more publicity for our hobby and more good times. Want more activities? Call, write, fax or send smoke signals and the committee will certainly try to oblige.

Pupu Kanioe

By C. Matsuda

Pupu Kanioe, the Hawaiian Tree Snail (Achatineliinae) known also as the Oahu Tree Snail is our No. 15 wooden token in the series of Hawaiian Endangered Wildlife. The Pupu Kanioe has a smooth glossy shell which is about three-fourth inch in length. It has a beautiful shell line in yellowish ochre, black, brown and white stripes trim in a variety of patterns.

The early European explorers once believed that the Pupu Kanioe were singing tree snails, mistaken by the sound of crickets that occupy the same forest. They are found on the Ko'olau and Waianae mountain ranges on the Leeward side of the island of Oahu. These snails are rapidly disappearing because of the disturbance of their habitat due to progress and predation by rats and other carnivorous snails.

The reverse of the wood features the Bombax (Deciduous Etymology) sometimes known as the silk-cotton tree. A native of Mexico and Central America, this tree prefers light, open soils, and thrives under tropical conditions an ideal plant for Hawaii. The Bombax has flowers before the leaves and consist of five purple petals, which are fused together at first, but curling backwards later and forming a nice feathery cluster of silky, pale-pink stamens, ending in golden-yellow anther.

To all milk covers and POG collectors, the Bombax is on the Honolulu Dairymen's Flower Series. The flower is printed as No. 195 in the series and is colored with a red on a white background. The milk cover was made in 1955 when milk still came in a bottle with a inch of cream on the top. That was real milk then. To order your wood; send 50¢ per wood enclosed with a self-addressed stamped envelop to: Honolulu Coin Club, P.O. Box 6063, Honolulu, Hawaii 96818.

Editorial - The idea for a 30th anniversary event brought to mind our hobby needed far more activity to involve our members. A response was received from our 2nd Vice President Gordon Donnell that arrangements could be made for one in California (See Event published in this issue). I regret I did not publish the POWMT Swap Meet at Warren, Ohio on October 1st, 1994. which was rather enjoyed by those attending and one is planned for 1995. PWMS our oldest remaining club has several gatherings each year, but again I fail to publish them. One will be most likely be scheduled at the CPNA annual coin show at Lancaster, PA (more later). A effort will be made to arrange for one in Washington and North Eastern area. None of these gatherings are meant to take away from our annual meeting held at the ANA this year to be in Anaheim Convention Center, CA. August 16-20, 1995 (See Housing reservation also in this issue. Reserve your room early as reasonable ones fill up fast.

Few of our members know years ago a number of clubs were formed in different areas but most held monthly meetings and attendance fell off. PWMS is the oldest remaining, formed in 1968. POWMT are the only club holding monthly meetings it was formed in 1982 and has held 150 meetings most all at the Nobbs home in Vienna, OH. Clubs lost were in CA./WA./NY and Midwest area states.

Our By-Laws Article VIII Section 4 reads, An official/unofficial meeting may be held at anytime when 3 or more members meet to discuss matters of interest or betterment of the organization. One member at an meeting should render a full report to the Editor or Secretary. This has never been used to my knowledge. Gatherings are a great way for wood collectors to get to meet and know each other and a opportunity to swap, trade or sell woods. I must note that at any gathering to be sure all attending are given a big welcome and asked to comment on their collecting interest and themselves. I have noted first timers at wood events feel they did not get much out of such and some don't return but ones that do get involved enjoy such. Personal observations and notes received after meetings have remained in my mind. I can only hope to attend as many as possible. My ANA badge has 16 bars showing we attended such. For many years we rarely missed a PWMS gathering. Scotty - Past Pres. & Editor

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WOODEN NICKEL COLLECTORS TO MEET IN FOSTORIA, OHIO

Yes Virginia there is not only a Santa Claus - there are wooden nickel collectors, and they will be meeting in Fostoria, Ohio on March 25 and 26, 1994 in conjunction with the Fostoria Coin Club's annual Coin Show.

Sponsored by the International Order of Wooden Money Collectors the agenda for the meeting includes registration, swap sessions and socializing at the yet to be named headquarters hotel during the afternoon of March 25, followed by a banquet with a speaker from the John Rogers Company of Fostoria.

While the first use of wooden money in the US was in Tenino, WA, the John Rogers Company was responsible for making hundreds of woods for civic celebrations throughout the northeast and midwestern United States. From the mid-1930's to 1954 wooden nickels were mostly printed on flat wood and most carry a copyright of the John Rogers Company, but little has been written or recorded about the company's involvement in wooden money production.

Sunday, March 26, 1994 agenda includes exhibits of member's collections, swapping and sales sessions and an auction. All these events will be open to the general public.

Membership information about The International Order of Wooden Money Collectors may be obtained from Mr. Robbin Quinn, 3993 Osage, Stow, Ohio 44224.

Send your donations to Robbin Quinn at his address noted below. Raffel tickets will be 50¢ each, and will be mailed out in your January newsletter. Please use the addressed envelope to return tickets. We plan to have a wood auction on the March 26th as well. Clint List will be placeing these lots into a mail bid in our February newsletter for members not able to make the March event. Any members wanting to have their lots auctioned off at the Fostoria meet must send them to Clint List now. Only (one) hundred lots will be accepted for this auction based on their value. SAWDUST - By Norm Boughton

Plans for the Fostoria, Ohio meeting are continuing. I haven't got the motel rates finalized yet but the preliminary looks pretty good-around $40.00 tax included and the Saturday dinner looks good also at about $10.00 a plate.

For those looking to fly in it looks like Toledo, OH is your best bet. Driving is pretty easy. Interstates and 4 lane divided highways seem to pass on all sides within 15 to 30 miles. Anyone wishes help with directions can drop a line and I'll get them lost for sure.

I am in touch now with the last owner of the John Rodgers Company who has agreed to try to answer any questions we have about the company and their wooden money. For one who used to think I knew all the answers, it is embarrassing to admit I don't know all the questions, but I probably will miss some. The three I know I want to ask are: 1 - Why wooden nickels as souvenirs ?, 2 - How many made for each wood ?, and 3 - Do any records, printing plates or other memorabilia exist ?. Got some you think I should ask ? Send them along with money. Whoops, thought I was writing to my kids and wanted to hit them for money they asked me.

I sure hope all of you have a wonderful holiday season. Remember IOWMC on your Christmas list and send Scotty an article-portrait, history of your local area woods, infro on your personal woods and ads to buy or sell woods are all needed. An editor is supposed to cut articals because the issue is full. Scotty becomes a cut and paster as he just doesn't get enough stuff to edit. Please make a New Years resolution to send something for Bunyan Chips every month, sign up a new member every month and endeavor to be in Fostoria.

Some of you-well one to be exact-had asked if I was going to have a slogan for 1995. The answer is yes! It falls right in line with "Collect Woods Galore in '95 as "Wood will thrive in '95".

IN MEMORIAM

LESTER "TEX" RYDER
IOWMC # C 59
BALLSTON Spa, NY
1912-1994

The Officers and Members of IOWMC. extend our sincere Sympathy to our truely missed members family.

It was with great sadness to receive word from Amy Ryder reporting Tex had passed away November 12th at the age of 82.

Born in Burnt Hills, Tex was a life-long area resident. He had lived at Maplewood Manor care center for the last seven years.

He worked at the former ALCO Products in Schenectady for 33 years retiring in 1969.

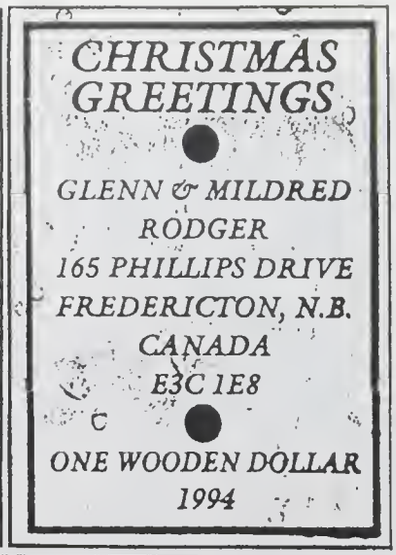
Tex attended Christ Episcopal Church and was a member of the Ring 26 Club, the ALCO 25-Year Club, the Western - Gateway coin Club in Scotia, and Wooden Money Collector Clubs.

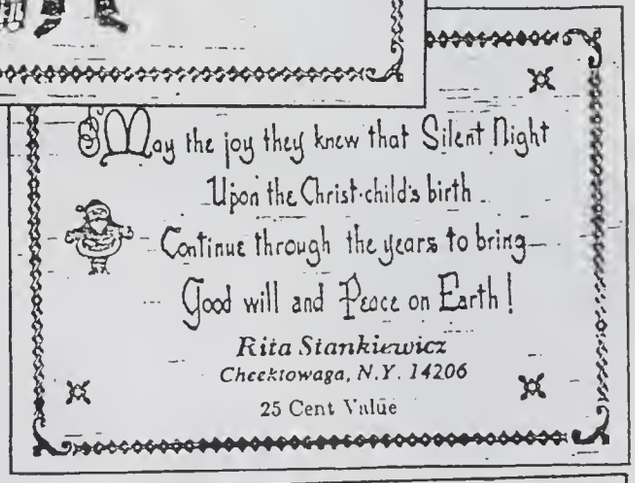
Survivors include his wife, Amy Davis Ryder; two daughters, Greer K. Hotaling and Lesley J. Monaco, both of Ballston Spa; two brothers, Mac Ryder of Nederland, Texas, and Arthur Ryder of Gansevoort; two sisters, Marcia Weeks of zephyr Hills, FL. and Jeanne Fowler of Ballaton Spa; and 3 grandsons

A grave side service was held in the Calvary Episcopal Cemetery, in Burnt Hills.

Tex was one of IOWMC's most dedicated members and received Life Membership # 23. His collection of woods was one of the best. It was set up by States with elaborate designs set atop of every frame. Photos are entered in our clubs history albums that can e seen by our members.

He was a boxer in his early days and boxed in many amusement parks one was Shell Pot Park in Wilmington, DE. that no longer exhist.





May the joy they knew that Silent Night
Upon the Christ-child's birth
Continue through the years to bring
Good will and Peace on Earth!
